

A session revamped literally overnight has teacher spellbound!

Julia revamped a session for a Yr5 group of pupils just yesterday; the session planned was for 60 Yr6 pupils; with the syllabus questions 'is Christianity still a strong religion 2000 years after Jesus was alive?' the teacher at the last minute (the afternoon before) asked if Julia and her team could still come in to do the session but for 29 Yr5 pupils instead, with a change of focus to 'What's the best way to show commitment to God?' Julia rose to the challenge; she checked with her volunteers if they were happy to go ahead, some elected to have the afternoon off but the majority decided to go ahead with the 'tweaked' session. She dovetailed the session to be suitable for their age, adding activities and included the new syllabus enquiry.

The feedback was awesome ...

"Children could make links to their RE and History lessons Seeing the look in the children's eyes, especially during the whole class input was magical ... you and your team are far and away the most flexible, professional and child-centred agency I have had the pleasure of working with ... Thank you very much again for all of your hard work."
